CITY HONORS SERVICE MEN

20,000 PERSONS CHEER VETERANS WHO MARCH IN BIG PAGEANT, OPENING HOMECOMING RECEPTION

RESCUERS MAY REACH 20 MEN IN MINE FIRE

Fighting Chance to Save Imprisoned Miners at Amsterdam.

ENTOMBED FOR 48 HOURS

Hold Out Hope That Some of Men May Still Be Living.

AMSTERDAM, Oct. 31.—“We have a good chance of reaching the twenty miners entombed and we are fighting hell to reach them.” This was the declaration today of Capt. Richard Jones of the 11-fated No. 2 coal mine of the Youghiogheny and Ohio Coal Company in which 20 miners have been entombed for 48 hours. He held out hope that some would still be living when reached. Mine rescue squads from Columbus and Pittsburgh aided by miners working in squads of 35 are boring their way through the choked up outcrops fighting the fire as they go by welling it off. They are nearing entries 14 and 15 where the men are believed entombed. Fire fighters from Steubenville are still fighting the flames and were hopeful that they would be controlled today. The families of the 20 men entombed are maintaining unbroken vigil at the mine entrance. They have not left during the 48 hours their loved ones have been missing. They have been fed by the Red Cross and sympathetic neighbors provided coats on which they could rest. So far none of the rescue workers have been seriously hurt, although six were overcome by gas. They were revived when brought to the surface by their comrades.

‘HUGGER’ BACK ON JOB HERE

Unidentified Man Frightens Women Passing Along Bradshaw Ave.

Another “Tom the Hugger” is active in East Liverpool. Police Friday were seeking to learn the identity of a man who has been frightening women as they pass along Bradshaw avenue at night. On three instances the man has appeared suddenly in front of women without escorts at a point in Bradshaw avenue, just off Walnut street. The man is said to grasp the women around the waist, administer a hearty hug and then allow them to proceed. No attempt has been made by the man, police were told, to rob his victims. The latest appearance of the “hugger” was made on Thursday night when he leaped from behind a cask in a loading shed belonging to the Knowles, Taylor & Knowles pottery in Bradshaw avenue and attempted to intercept a woman passing along the street.

Medals of Honor Are Awarded Service Men as Military Pageant Disbands at Court of Honor in Broadway-Foot Ball Game, Boxing Tournament, Community Street Dance And Mardi Gras On Program.

Memories of the never-to-be-forgotten days of the world war were revived when East Liverpool's former service men passed in review before more than 20,000 of their fellow townsmen in the military street parade that formally inaugurated the city's soldier homecoming Friday afternoon. Sidewalks along the line of march were packed solidly with cheering humanity as the city's bronzed heroes, veterans of many a grueling battle overseas, swept onward, flanked by the silver-haired survivors of the one-mighty Army of the Republic and the khaki-clad troops of the Spanish-American war. Martial strains of four bands furnished stirring march music and the snappy tread of hundreds of soldier feet re-echoed along the city's downtown streets. To the densely-packed throngs lining the curbstones, the pageant marked a new era in the city's history. Loved ones, who but a few short months ago bade them a fond adieu and bravely shouldered a rifle to fight for the preservation of a world democracy and an everlasting peace, have returned safely to their homes.

NINE REVIEW MEN IN SERVICE; ONE GASSED

Nine employees of the East Liverpool Review responded to the call to the colors during the world war. Of this number three saw active service overseas. Captain Millard E. Blythe served in France and Belgium with Company A, 134th Machine Gun Battalion, 37th Ohio National Guard division. Corporal Fred W. Coe, who served with Company K, 54th Infantry, Regular army, participated in the Vosges mountains and the Argonne-Meuse drive. He was gassed November 9 at St. Piermont in the Argonne forest and was in American army hospitals overseas six months. Sergeant Howard J. Kaufman served overseas a year with Company M, 18th Infantry, First Division. He was under fire in the Argonne forest and later spent eight months with the American army of occupation at Montauban, Germany. Other world war veterans on the Review staff who did not see overseas service, are: Stewart Brush, George Cochran, Francis J. Wise, Paul W. Reed, Clement L. Franz and Samuel Quarts.

To the others sprinkled among the cheering spectators whose dear ones are now sleeping beneath the poppies in Flanders fields or other hallowed spots in France and Belgium, the pageant stirred anew the bravely-hidden wells of sorrow. But to these came the consolation that only through the supreme sacrifice made by their loved ones was the day's celebration made possible.

Given Medals of Honor

Shortly before 2 p. m., the military street parade moved northward in Broadway headed by Chief of Police Hugh McDermott and a squad of city police in uniform. Following directly behind the platoon of police came the blue-clad veterans of the civil war and allied organizations. A group of automobiles, the only machines in the parade, were placed into the procession behind the veterans to be used in case any of the old soldiers were unable to complete the line of march.

Mayor J. S. Wilson, members of the city council and other city officials formed the next group in the parade. The Clarkson band headed the Spanish-American war veterans, while directly behind came the Ceramic City band, physicians and nurses who served during the war and the world war veterans themselves. A file and drum corps, headed a large group of Boy Scouts under command of Lewis Capehart, followed by the Italian band. Red Cross women in uniform and the high school band brought up the rear of the pageant.

Thousands of flags, bits of bunting and “Welcome Home” signs fluttered from business houses and residences along the line of march, while a beautifully decorated Court of Honor in Broadway greeted the marchers. Passing eastward along Fifth street on the final stretch of the line of march the pageant marched through two solid lines of pupils from the public and parochial schools. The “Lane of Homage” started at the Elks' temple, West Fifth street, extending eastward to Broadway and down Broadway to Fourth street. Tiny American flags in the hands of the children waved a glorious welcome as the pageant swept onward.

Gifts For Service Men

Reaching the Court of Honor in Broadway, the vanguard of the procession opened ranks and allowed the world war veterans to march between the ranks to the reviewing stand. As the ex-service men passed through the ranks of the civil war veterans, old soldiers stepped forward and pinned the city's honor emblem upon their breasts. High school students formed in two solid ranks at Broadway and Fourth street drew long-stemmed carnations through the buttonholes of the honored heroes' coats as they paused just before disbanding. A committee from Carroll Council, No. 509, Knights of Columbus, headed by James Kenney, former overseas K. of C. secretary, met the soldiers as they broke ranks and distributed match safes, cigarettes, handkerchiefs and other “welcome home” gifts. An invitation to visit the club rooms of the K. of C. in the Fowler building were thrown wide open all day Friday for the use of the ex-service men. Cigarettes, matches and handkerchiefs, chocolate, tobacco and light refreshments will be served in the rooms, while Stillwell's orchestra will furnish a program of dance music for the afternoon and evening. All ex-service men, their wives, mothers, sisters and relatives will be made welcome all day. Open house will also be observed in the Moose lodge and the Y. M. C. A.

Department of Justice Files Case Under Lever Act.

BULLETIN

COLUMBUS, Oct. 31.—“Union miners of Ohio will not go to work tomorrow,” said Secretary G. W. Savage of the Ohio organization, United Mine Workers of America, when informed of the injunction against the officers of United Mine Workers of America granted at Indianapolis today. “We could not stop the men from going out if we tried,” continued at Indianapolis today, under the constitution of the United States. Is it no reason why the constitution should be set aside at this time. We have gone out before under our constitutional right to quit work.”

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Oct. 31.—Officials of the United Mine Workers are enjoined from enforcing a nationwide strike of bituminous coal miners at midnight tonight under the terms of a temporary restraining order issued by Federal Judge A. B. Anderson here today.

Unlawful conspiracy to limit the output and facilities for the transportation of coal is charged in the proceedings brought by the department of justice under the terms of the Lever food and fuel control act.

Eighty-four officials of the mine workers' organization are made defendants in the restraining order. Deputy United States marshals began serving the writs immediately after Judge Anderson attached his signature.

1,600 MINERS LEAVE POSTS

Many Men In Eastern Ohio Begin Strike Friday Morning.

ST. CLAIRSVILLE, O., Oct. 31.—The mine strike is already under way in eastern Ohio, 1,600 men laying down their tools in various mines this morning. The remaining miners will strike this evening, completing their last day's work at 4 o'clock. Officials for the miners' union said 15,000 men would be on strike at that time. Details for the strike in Ohio and that part of West Virginia in the eastern Ohio sub-district were completed at a meeting of the executive board of district six in Columbus yesterday. Only one mine is not affected by the strike, that being at the Carnegie Steel company's mill in Belaire. It is said that it is the only non-union mine in Ohio. Mines of the steel corporation in Martin's Ferry and Bridgeport will be shut down, as they are operated under the union scale. Though the company has refused to unionize its mill workers and the latter are on a strike, coal mined at these mills since the steel strike started has been shipped to Pennsylvania plants of the company.

PLAN TO BAN ACID DUMPING

Action has been taken in Pittsburgh to bring about legislation or to take such steps as may become necessary to eliminate the putting of acid in the river. The most of the acid, it is reported, comes from the numerous mills along the river banks, and it is possible that a water purifying device will be recommended to mill officials.

This action was taken following the receipt in Pittsburgh of a communication from Lieutenant Colonel Harley B. Ferguson, United States engineer, stating that his department was making an investigation into the matter. The letter requested that details be given as to the number of boats and other marine craft whose boilers or other parts have suffered from the acid of the stream. He also asked that the localities where the damage was sustained be given, as well as the total amount involved. Action will be taken by the United States engineers to put an end to the pollution of the rivers.

ANTLERS SEEK TO BOOK GAME

Unless efforts of Manager Edward Fogo to secure a game for the Antlers' football team for Saturday are successful within the next 24 hours, the independent gridiron eleven of Wellsville take an enforced rest this weekend.

The following Saturday the Toronto Tigers are scheduled to play at Central park. The Antlers were defeated by the Tigers several weeks ago at Toronto by a single touchdown. Since that time, however, the local team has improved greatly and expects to even the standing.

Manager Boyd, in reply to statements that reflected on the glory of the Jefferson countians in winning the game on that occasion, is of the opinion that the touchdown was perfectly legal.

In a communication he states: "Would say that as far as the touchdown on the Antlers was concerned, it was unquestionably legal. The Tigers outplayed the Antlers in every department of the game and should have had a larger score. The Tigers played a hard game and only once did the Wellsville team look even a bit dangerous to them. This was due to a fumble on a punted ball, giving the Antlers their first down on the Toronto 40-yard line. The Tigers then held them from the goal. In my mind the victory was earned."

Rush Work on Switches.

COAL EMBARGO IS IN EFFECT

More stringent in effect than at any time during the war, it is declared, an embargo on coal deliveries became effective Thursday on the Pennsylvania railroad, and it is understood, other roads will follow Friday.
The order prohibits the delivery of bituminous coal to practically every form of industry except those recognized as "National necessities," and the result, it is believed, will have a far-reaching influence on the steel strike in Western Pennsylvania, Eastern Ohio and West Virginia. The order prohibits the delivery of bituminous coal to connecting railroads, but allows the following to be supplied as far as the supply is available.

NEW YORK LETTER

By O. O. McINTYRE.

NEW YORK, Nov. 1.—Thoughts while strolling around Manhattan: Slick ruse! Auto trucks with posters, "Give the cops more pay!" Now they can speed. Horrors! An Englishman chewing gum. The Millionaire's club lighting up. Think I'll top in the foyer. Feel like Mrs. Hogan at Newport. Wonder how much money a millionaire carries with him?

There's Fanchon, the famous model. Gets $200 a week just for wearing snappy clothes. Nobody knows her last name. Said to come from Syracuse. George Cohan's daughter George. Just here from Paris. Frank L. Packard down from Quebec. Cleaning up on "The Miracle Man."

Louise, the blind girl, praying on the Cathedral steps. Goes there each day at the vespers hour. Old men making toys so early for Christmas. I'm going to lay off this Xmas stuff this year. Say it every year and always go broke.

There goes a prominent editor. Once told me he could not resist taking soap and matches when he left a hotel bed room. I generally swipe stationery myself. With such thrift? And I never worry about the hum of a taxi.

Old time carriage with faded occupant. Declasse! Still they won't give up the evening ride. Probably half starved. Dr. Erdmann. Gets a fortune for cutting you up. Comes from Chillicothe, O. Wonder if there are any flu germs flying around here. Kinda silly to fear a little bit of a thing too small to see.

Card in window of cafe: "Germany lost the war—Russia went Bolshevik and the United States went dry." John D. Rockefeller's town house. Looks gloomy. Son's place next door. Big gymnasium on the roof for the children. Getting too dark. I'm going home.

There is a strange fascination about the old, wrinkled-faced pushcart peddlers of the Ghetto. What lies behind the stolid mask? Even a big sale will not make them smile. Yet they are polite and never complain. A hardy race. Their oranges might be golden dreams of yesteryears. The cruel years have drawn deep lines of cunning and guile—but there is also great patience and a noble scorn for those who jeer in mockery at their strange garb and customs. They sit on the stoops at night, exhausted and silent. They work apparently only that their young may go to the fine schools. Education is their watchword. They know that perhaps the future generation, their children, will lift the gloomy mantle and hail a new dawn.

The movie industry has a new vocation—a sort of super press agency job. Only trained press agents are filling these jobs. It is called exploitation work. The exploitation men are getting $500 a week and one is getting $750. Their job is to fill a movie house. And they work one week one place and the next week another. Circus-like spectacular press agency and advertising are employed. Big banners, parades, mystifying advertisements, personal letters asking the recipient to see a certain film and signed "Your Friend," animals loosed in the lobby, etc., etc. These are the things that the exploitation men believe fill movie theaters and they are paid for using them.

Ted Lewis, the so-called jazz king, came from Centerville, Ohio. He played around in music stores until he came to New York and got a job in a cabaret. He pours sour notes out of a clarinet and between boats juggles a knocked-in plug hat. The newest jazz artist in the Broadway cabaret places is a man with a laughing trombone. People have to have something like that along with their 2.75 beer or they won't come out nights.

I-O-I-N!

One word of four letters carries the appeal of the American Red Cross to the womanhood and manhood of this country for enrollment in the third roll call, which will be officially launched Sunday, Nov. 2, and continue until Armistice day, Nov. 11.

Throughout the United States next week men and women, but especially women, will carry the message of mercy to millions of homes in the campaign to secure additional funds to continue the work of this great mother of mankind.

In East Liverpool, the solicitation of memberships will not begin until Tuesday morning, when ward and precinct workers, under the leadership of Mrs. C. A. Ferguson, city chairman, will make a house-to-house canvass. The organization for the campaign has been so thoroughly perfected here that it is expected to double the quota within three days.

Every man, woman and child who has read anything about the late war knows of the wonderful work done by the Red Cross both in the war theatres and at home. Not only were the mercy workers on the job back of the firing line, but they maintain vigil at all times for cases of relief in countries far distant from the roar of the big guns.

And with the war ended, the work of the Red Cross has only begun. The peace-time program calls for relief for the needy, nursing for the sick and preparedness for disaster on a scale never before possible. The Red Cross stands ready to respond for all calls for aid in tornadoes, floods, great fires, earthquakes, explosions, riots, shipwrecks and, in fact, all tragic calamities.

To aid in this great work, the "greatest mother in the world" will appeal to you next week for one dollar as a membership fee. It is a gift-edged investment. Your interest in humanity will be attested by displaying the Red Cross emblem conspicuously and wearing the Red Cross button.

SALVAGE.

Never before, say experts, have dry cleaners done so much business as this year. People who think they need new winter coats and suits make a tour of the available stores, study the prices in relation to the other things they have to buy out of the family income, and go home again. They get out the old garments, mend them up, send them to be cleaned and expect to make them do a while longer.

This does not mean that people are not buying new coats and suits. They are, and never were coats and suits so handsome as those now on display. But those proud purchasers of the new garments are also patronizing the dry cleaners. Having paid the price, they want to keep the new apparel fresh as long as possible, and the old duds are cleaned and fixed up to wear in bad weather, thus preserving the glory of the new ones for fine days.

There is one consideration which ought to enter into any plan for salvaging a garment. If the labor and cost of repairing it are worth more than the material, if they are out of proportion to the time the remodeled article will wear, then the remodeling ceases to be a virtue and becomes the height of extravagance. Better put the time and money aside to go into new things.

The world, however, is short of wool. Every bit of good material which can be conserved and put to use for a few months longer helps restore the balance between production and demand.

Now if someone would just have the energy and foresight to put mending and remodeling on the same businesslike basis as the dry-cleaning industry—with the garments collected upon telephone call, returned mended and ready for wear in a few days—what a boon it would be to busy men and busy women and the world's want!

FEEDING CHILDREN.

The United States Department of Agriculture is working with various welfare agencies throughout the country to conduct a campaign against undernourishment and improper feeding of growing children. By means of charts, lectures, exhibits and the efforts of home demonstration agents and state colleges, these organizations are trying to get their message across to the parents who need it.

It is possible to build a foundation of good health in childhood which will carry the future citizen through all kinds of hard work and help him to resist heavy strains later on. It is just as easy to undermine by insufficient nourishment an otherwise sturdy constitution and turn out a human being too weak nervously and muscularly to perform his share of the world's work.

The poor child of the slums is not the only one who suffers undernourishment. Many a child of rich parents is undernourished, not because of too scanty a ration, but because of an entirely wrong diet. In the well-to-do family the child is too often allowed to choose the food he wants to eat, and if he has been pampered from babyhood he is more than likely to choose the wrong things.

Parents know more than they used to about the proper feeding of children, but there is still a good deal of educational work to be done in behalf of the little folks of city and country, of poverty-stricken farm and tenement, and of great house on the avenue.

"Raise Your Own Salary," says an ad. At last the way to meet the cost of living has been found.

Passing the buck is now the favorite game of the profiteers.

Anyway, there's one thing to rejoice over. The flu has flown.

This week's most horrible suggestion—"Do your Christmas Shopping Early!"

A "nightie" is surely the latest thing in fashionable dress, at least it is always donned later than any of millady's other garments. This one is a Paris inspiration which was imported by a fashionable New York lingerie shop. It has hip drapery just like a day frock and deep rose colored ribbon is used to trim the pale flesh colored silk. Silver lace makes the yoke.

JUST because shoes are so outrageously high in price generally, doesn't mean that you can't buy a really serviceable, smart, comfortable shoe unless you pay well for it. For $4.45, for instance, you can get a beautiful NEWARK model as pictured. This only goes to prove that it pays to buy from this national chain store shoe institution, which can keep prices down because its output is more than four million pairs a year.

TELEGRAPH OPERATOR TAKES HYPO-COD FOR RUNDOWN CONDITION

Wife Tells How He is Able to do His Work Much Better After Taking but One Bottle.

THOUSANDS NOW PRAISE REMEDY.

"My husband suffered from rheumatism for three or four years, also, a general rundown condition. His stomach trouble caused him to have a poor appetite and he could not eat many things," declared Mrs. J. E. Griswold, 815 Prospect Ave., S. W. Canton, O.

"My husband bought a bottle of Hypo-Cod because he saw it recommended so highly in the paper and it has strengthened him greatly, gave him an excellent appetite and he is not bothered with bloating and gas on the stomach. My husband thinks also, that his rheumatism is better, of course he has taken only one bottle, but intends to get more as he thinks it will cure his rheumatism. It is building him up and making him feel so much stronger and more like himself that he can do his work so much better."

I recommend Hypo-Cod because it is helping him and will help others," continued Mrs. Griswold, wife of the well known telegraph operator of the Wheeling & Lake Erie Railroad.

Earle's Hypo-Cod gives the run-down system a boost, tones up the strength and makes a person feel a hundred per cent better. Physicians and thousands of users familiar with these ingredients, testify to its efficiency in bringing back the hearty appetite, helping the digestion, blood liver, and kidneys. For chronic coughs, colds, bronchitis and catarrhal troubles, it is excellent. It is made of the finest medicinal elements long recognized as splendid in the treatment of such troubles and includes extracts from cod liver oil, malt, iron, wine, wild cherry bark, etc. An ideal tonic for this time of the year.

Your druggist has Earle's Hypo-Cod in the orange colored carton, put up by the nationally known Earle Chemical Co., Wheeling, W. Va., which insures quality, and sold all over America for $1.20 plus 5c War tax for large bottle.

READY TO OPEN MERCY DRIVE

Everything is in readiness for the Red Cross membership campaign which will be officially launched in Chester on Sunday when the ministers of the local churches will urge upon the members of their congregations during their sermons to lend their assistance to the Red Cross by becoming a member.

At the request of Miss Florence Moss, county secretary, and Rev. W. E. Allen, D. D., pastor of the First Presbyterian church at New Cumberland, who has been named to head the drive in Hancock county, every minister in Chester will remind his congregation of the campaign which will be conducted next week. Some of the clergymen will touch upon the subject during their morning sermons, while others will take up the question during the evening preaching service.

The whirlwind campaign for members in Chester will start Monday morning, when a committee of about 50 Chester women will make a house to house canvass. Every possible effort will be made to complete the work in the first day of the campaign. An appeal will be made to every man and woman in the city to join the organization in an effort to make Chester "100 per cent Red Cross members."

The membership fee is but $1. One-half of the money realized in this campaign will be used in the home service work. This will be the last Red Cross campaign for a year, it has been officially announced.

SITUATION IN CHESTER STILL CONTINUES ACUTE

The sugar situation in Chester still continues acute, according to statements made by representative grocers Friday morning.

A number of Halloween parties have been held this week with many more scheduled for Friday and Saturday evening. However, the usual "taffy pulling" diversions at these parties have been greatly reduced in number this year, because of the shortage of sugar.

Grocers during the past few weeks have been dispensing the commodity in two-pound packages, but the shortage has become more acute recently, making it necessary to sell it in but one-pound lots.

Because of the condition of the sugar supply this year, but very little fruit was preserved for the winter by Chester housewives.

AGED MAN TO SEEK PENSION

The home service section of the Hancock county chapter of the American Red Cross has been asked by an aged Chester man to investigate the matter of his being entitled to a pension.

The man in question, who resides in Middle Run, is 73 years of age and he believes that he is entitled to a pension. The Civil war broke out when he was a lad yet in his teens. At that time he was living in Virginia.

The government commandeered a team of horses and a wagon belonging to the father of the Chester man and the son drove this team during the entire four years of the war in government work.

The man feels that he is entitled to a pension, in that he was engaged in war work during the four years of strife, between the north and the south.

Miss Florence Moss, secretary of the local chapter, is investigating the matter in an effort to learn whether the aged man is entitled to a pension and if so collect all pension money which has been due him for many back years.

The claimant has no proofs, however, to show that he performed this work during the war as all of his relatives and friends who resided in that community at the time have died or removed to parts unknown.

ACIDS IN STOMACH
CAUSE IN DIGESTION
Create Gas, Sourness and Pain.
How To Treat.

Medical authorities state that nearly nine-tenths of the cases of stomach trouble, indigestion, sourness, burning, gas, bloating, nausea, etc., are due to an excess of hydrochloric acid in the stomach and not as some believe to a lack of digestive juices. The delicate stomach lining is irritated, digestion is delayed and food sours, causing the disagreeable symptoms which every stomach sufferer knows so well.

Artificial digestants are not needed in such cases and may do real harm. Try laying aside all digestive aids and instead get from any druggist a few ounces of Bismuth Magnesia and take a teaspoonful in a quarter glass of water right after eating. This sweetens the stomach, prevents the formation of excess acid and there is no sourness, gas or pain. Bismuth Magnesia (in powder or tablet form—never in liquid or milk) is harmless to the stomach, inexpensive to take and is the most efficient form of magnesia for stomach purposes. It is used by thousands of people who enjoy their meals with no more fear of indigestion.

tion of Chester. The second and deciding game of the series was played at Rock Springs park Wednesday afternoon, the Mill addition eleven emerging on the long end of a 45 to 6 score.

Blakely, Bailey and Barnhart starred for the winning team, while the work of Harris and Beabout for the losing aggregation was worthy of mention.

Halloween Entertainment.

A large number of young people from Chester and East Liverpool attended the Halloween entertainment given by the pupils of the Allison school house last evening. The feature of the entertainment was a sketch, "Deacon Dubbs." An interesting program was carried out during the evening, at the conclusion of which a luncheon was served.

The affair was under the direction of Miss Mabel Mathers, teacher of the school.

Held Halloween Party

Warren Riley, son of Mr. and Mrs. Enoch Riley of Florida avenue, entertained a few of his young friends, last evening, at a Halloween party. The hours were passed in games and other parlor amusements. A "Taffy-pull" was a feature. Refreshments were served by Mrs. Riley.

The guests included: Kenneth Higgs Thomas McCluskey, Addie Household, Kenneth Bartley, George Karn and George Beadle.

DRESSMAKER SAVED FROM OPERATION

By Taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound in Time.

Ithaca, N.Y.—"Three years ago I suffered from pains in my right side, so severe that I could not raise my feet from the floor. Pains would shoot down my limbs and through my back, and the doctor said I had an abscess. I was in bed two weeks with an ice bag on my side and expected any day that I might have to go to a hospital for an operation. A friend came to see me and told me of your wonderful medicine—Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I began taking it, and after taking six bottles I feel well and strong, do my own work and do dressmaking for others. I cannot speak too highly of your medicine and recommend it to others who suffer with female trouble. It is a Godsend to ailing women, and you may use my name at any time."—Mrs. PERMILLA HULSIZER, 218 E. Fall St., Ithaca, N.Y.

BRYANT WASHBURN AT DIAMOND THEATRE

A motion picture in which there is something doing every minute after the first scene is flashed upon the screen, is "Something To Do," Bryant Washburn's latest starring vehicle, which will be shown at the Diamond Friday. This is a picture of the speedy variety and is as full of action as an egg is of meat.

Mr. Washburn has a role in this picture which affords him an opportunity to show that he can handle wide awake characters with the same ease and skill with which he portrays the sleepy sort of boob in his previous productions. Donald Crisp, who made sion of Larry Evans' red-blooded and fighting story "Once to Every Man," which will be shown at the Strand theater Friday and Saturday.

"Verus in the East," and other Washburn pictures is responsible for "Something To Do," and he has put it across in a lively, snappy manner. Ann Little is the leading woman and heads an excellent cast of players, including Robert Brower, Charles Gerard, Adele Farrington, Charles Ogle and James Mason.

This production vividly portrays the story of the almost brutal oppression of the residents of a small town to a boy whose parents established a bad reputation for drinking. The lad struggles to fight off the inherited craving and all but fails a victim to the taint.

Chief among his tormentors is a big burly brute of a lumber jack, who, without provocation, unmercifully beats the boy. Even the lad's sweetheart loses faith in him and he sojourns to the big city there to fight his battles alone and struggles thru many vicissitudes.

He finally overcomes tremendous opposition and mounts the ladder of success.

SPIKE THE FLU'S GUNS NOW IS THE BEST OF ADVICE

DO NOT WAIT TILL WINTER COMES WITH A RETURN OF THE EPIDEMIC.

Where did influenza come from? Is it an old or a new foe to man? Is it breathed in from the air or drawn from human victims?

Who can answer these and other questions suggested by an epidemic that gripped multitudes of Americans last winter at the cost of tens of thousands of lives? Wisacres try to answer them and see how they differ—especially the doctors.

But with another winter around the corner the vital question is this: Has my system power to ward off the "flu" if it comes? On the answer may hang countless human lives.

Ever since this epidemic began last winter these columns have carried statements signed by well known flu-victims whose systems were rebuilt after weeks and months of suffering by the use of Nerv-Worth. Influenza is a vicious wrecker of the nerves, the stomach, the bowels, the liver and other vital parts of the system. Upon these are centered influenza's worst after-effects. Nerv-Worth drives out these after-effects by rebuilding the organs in which they chiefly have their seat.

And what it did last winter and afterwards in rebuilding disabled organs it can and will do now to fortify them against influenza's attacks. Nerv-Worth druggists and Nerv-Worth salesmen, after freely comparing notes, declare that the fewest number of their customers who took Nerv-Worth regularly last winter and spring were visited by the disease.

Begin to take Nerv-Worth now. Nip the very firstlings of influenza in the bud. An ounce of prevention is worth a pound of cure. Fortify your system by taking Nerv-Worth right along for weeks. Your forethought will not be lost even if the epidemic does not return, for Nerv-Worth steadies and strengthens the nerves, adds flesh, aids digestion, whets the appetite, rouses the liver, regulates the bowels, restores restful sleep, banishes sick and nervous headache and other aches and pains, builds up run-down systems; and this is a great work to do for ailing humans, influenza or no influenza.

Larkin's drug store, East Liverpool, sells Nerv-Worth. Neighborhood agents: H. R. Schoff, Salineville; J. F. Calhoun, Wellsburg; Welch drug store, Toronto; Frank Huff, Chester; G. H. Stewart, Newell; P. W. Gamble, Midland.

cast of 75 artists. Stage settings and costumes for the first part elicited a gasp of appreciation from the audience, while each succeeding number brought a generous round of applause.

Austin Bolles, Eddie Stinson, John Coleman, Daniel Lynch, Matt Finley and Alfred Sullivan were easily the vocal stars of the performance. Bolles' rendition of "Everybody Wants the Key to My Cellar" brought down the house, while the ballads, "Mammy o' Mine," by John Coleman, and "The Tumbledown Shack in Ailons" by Matt Finley, were well received.

Daniel Lynch, probably the youngest performer in the production, made a splendid impression with the rendition of "O What a Pal Was Mary."

He was forced to respond to three en-cores. Big Chief Knoebone Austin Bolles and his grotesque Hottentots were a feature of the after part. Ed Siefert, one of the directors of the minstrel and an oldtime blackface comedian, put on a pleasing monologue. The pageant "Starlight," presented by a bevy of 25 girls, headed by Miss Anna Hamill, proved a headliner of the after part. David Swinscoe, billed as "Harry Lauder's only rival," was an able mimic of the famous Scot.

The closing scenes at the village church, the marriage ceremony, Parson Brown's return to the old plantation, the dance on the levee, brought the season's best home taken production to a close.

The show was staged under the personal direction of Jack Clifford and Ed Siefert of Columbus. Costumes and stage settings were furnished by Clifford.

"Cascarets" work while you sleep! When you are feeling bilious, head-achy, constipated, if the breath is bad, stomach upset, or for colds, sal-lowness, just take "Cascarets" to regu-late the liver and bowels and all is well by morning.

"Cascarets" never gripe, sicken or keep you anxious all the next day like Calomel, Salts, Oil or violent Pills. "Cascarets" are a delightful laxa-tive-cathartic for grown-ups and chil-dren. Switch to "Cascarets". Cost so little

ASK AID FOR WAR CHILDREN

NEW YORK, Oct. 31.—The War Children's Relief Fund had intended to close its annual Christmas work in 1918, but is National Chairman, Mrs. Eva McDonald Valesh, states that many former contributors have asked the privilege of giving the Belgian, French and Polish children some Christmas remembrances this year.

So in response to this generous and kindly impulse Mrs. Valesh says that contributions will be received and forwarded again this year, by this fund.

The "Little Stocking" is the emblem of this Fund and many little stockings will be sent to children and to those who love children, with the suggestion that: "we share our Christmas joys with our little friends overseas, who suffered so many hardships during the war and who are not yet enjoying the full happiness that will come with the return of normal conditions."

The War Children's Relief Fund has collected and forwarded gifts to make many thousands of children happy, every Christmas season since 1914. While the gifts include every necessary food and clothing, yet there is always a toy or bit of candy or fruit to appeal to the childish heart with a bit of real Christmas cheer.

While the suffering is not so ex-

BE PRETTY! TURN GRAY HAIR DARK

Try Grandmother's Old Favorite Recipe of Sage Tea and Sulphur.

Almost everyone knows that Sage Tea and Sulphur, properly compounded, brings back the natural color and lustre to the hair when faded, streaked or gray. Years ago the only way to get this mixture was to make it at home, which is messy and troublesome. Nowadays, by asking at any drug store for "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," you will get a large bottle of this famous old recipe, improved by the addition of other ingredients, at a small cost.

Don't stay gray! Try it! No one can possibly tell that you darkened your hair, as it does it so naturally and evenly. You dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning the gray hair disappears, and after another application or two, your hair becomes beautifully dark, glossy and attractive.

SAYS FRIEND WAS CURED

Mrs. C. M. Wise, of No. 182 39th St., Tells How She Came to Try Plant Juice.

When the stomach is not properly digesting the food, there is no limit to the way affections can be spread to every organ of the body, producing

MRS. C. M. WISE. Intestinal poisoning, rheumatism, liver and kidney trouble, and many other distressing ailments. Plant Juice, the famous stomach remedy, is invaluable in aiding such cases and every day statements are being received from local people telling of the great benefits they have derived from the use of Plant Juice.

Mrs. C. M. Wise, who lives at No. 182 Thirty-ninth street, and is one of the best known women in Pittsburgh, having lived there for the past 53 years. She said:

"For four years I had been troubled with my stomach and could not keep any solid food in it, as it would ferment and cause gas to form. I suffered agony after eating anything and dreaded to sit down to the table. My kidneys were also badly affected and I had terrible pains across my back and in my side; I had headaches and dizzy spells, due to a deranged liver and I had pains all through my body. I could not sleep I felt in such a nervous condition and had taken all kinds of medicines, and treatments without any benefit. A friend of mine who had been cured of stomach troubles by Plant Juice, begged me to try it. I now have taken several bottles and am feeling fine; my stomach is in good condition and I can eat anything, sleep well and have no more trouble with my liver or kidneys. Plant Juice is a fine medicine and I am glad to recommend it."

Plant Juice is sold in East Liverpool at Larkin's Drug Store.

terme as in former years, yet Mrs. Valesh says her reports show that Christmas gifts will meet a very real need among these children.

This Fund always sends a certain amount direct to the Queen of Belgium and has more than once received her sincere thanks. Now that many of us have seen and spoken with the delighted Queen, there will be an added sentiment in helping the little ones of her land.

This Fund asks that only contributions of money be forwarded, as shipping congestion makes it very difficult to forward clothing.

Those who wish to give a happy Christmas to these needy children will please make their check or money order payable to the War Children's Relief Fund and address it to the War Children's Relief Fund, Suite 1109, Number Two Rector Street, New York City.

A BRIEF REVIEW OF TELEPHONE FACTS

IN A NUMBER OF ADVERTISEMENTS appearing weekly in this and other newspapers we have endeavored to make clear our reasons for asking the Public Utilities Commission for an increase in telephone rates in the portion of Ohio served by this company. Briefly summarized, these weekly statements have covered the following points.

1.—INCREASED COSTS have seriously affected us. During 1916 we did not even earn enough to pay our operating expenses. Our actual operating expenses loss for the year was $122,656.

2.—INSUFFICIENT REVENUES mean that a public utility cannot fulfill its obligations, first, to serve the public and serve it well and second, to earn a reasonable return. We have undertaken these obligations and must not neglect them.

3.—SALARIES AND WAGES, our largest single item of expense, have greatly increased. During the past three years the average wage paid our employees has increased nearly 60 per cent.

4.—TELEPHONE MATERIALS, our second largest expense, have sharply increased in cost. Since 1914 the average cost of materials has gone up over 75 per cent.

5.—TELEPHONE RATES, conforming to an unchangeable law of trade, are governed by the cost of producing telephone service. While a private industry might shut up shop conditions become more nearly normal, a public serving company must continue doing business.

6.—ALTHOUGH RATE INCREASES were made effective in some points a few months ago, these rates have not proved adequate because they were based on an anticipated drop in costs. Instead of decreasing, costs have risen.

ASSUMING THAT OUR VALUATION of the company's property is fair and that our management is economical and efficient, both of which we are prepared to prove, we believe that the public will endorse our effort to earn a reasonable return on our investment. This is all we are asking in our petition for higher rates now pending before the Public Utilities Commission.

FILES REPORT OF MERCY WORK

Miss Helen Ramsey of Lisbon, home service secretary for the Red Cross of the county outside of the two big cities, has filed her report of work done since she took charge in April.

It shows that 449 families were given help, money relief was extended to 15, 130 homes were visited, 691 letters were written for soldiers or members of their families, there were 293 social visits, 315 reference visits and 21 other forms of help extended. The expense during the period, including office and money relief, was $1,543.53. Visits to Red Cross auxiliaries, numbered aside from families, 355.

The financial report of Miss Mabel Macquis, treasurer, showed a balance at the beginning of the year, July 1, 1918, of $1,191. Receipts during the year were $16,054. The expenditures, including fees to Red Cross headquarters at Washington, were $12,435. There is a balance in the treasury now of $7,811. ## FEDERAL COURT others, comprising the executive board, the scale committee and district presidents who met here this week and refused President Wilson's plea that the strike order be recalled, are the defendants.

The injunction provides that the miners' officials shall not issue final messages calling for the strike, or aid in enforcing continuance of the mine tieup. Immediate arrests for contempt of court will follow any attempts to continue strike plans, it was said.

Hearing on permanent injunction proceedings will be held an early date. The general right of labor to strike is not involved in the government's action against the miners, declared C. B. Ames, assistant attorney general in presenting the government's charges.

"This is an exceptional case" said the assistant attorney general. It does not involve the right of labor to organize or to strike, but it is based on the government's broad power to protect its people.

"This action is brought under a special law—the Lever act—enacted in war time to keep food and guns moving and this law is still effective. The government's right to prevent the restriction of the output of coal in this case is definitely settled in the Debs case and the Allen case. (The Allen case involved traffic in Indiana vehicles). Pointing out that the Washington wage agreement which the miners sought to terminate at midnight applied only to the central competitive field—Pennsylvania, Ohio, Illinois and Indiana—Mr. Ames asserted the miners' officials had overstepped their bounds and called a strike effective throughout the United States.

The penalties are inadequate in this "agreement" by the miners which will result in "irreparable injury" in which the people will be innocent sufferers" said Ames.

"The criminal courts are inadequate to prevent the wrong and protect the people" he declared.

"The injury is done if the strike goes on" the attorney general's representative said in laying before the court the necessity for action before the strike becomes effective. "The situation is fraught with consequences impossible to forestall."

The strike will reduce the production of coal 80 per cent., according to the miners' own statements, said Ames, and it will enforce idleness, bring cessation of labor, and widespread suffering that will constitute a national disaster. It will be impossible if the strike becomes effective, to continue transportation, mails would be halted, army transportation would come to a standstill, food and fuel would be held up and it would be impossible to deliver raw materials to factories or carry away products, declared the assistant attorney general.

Football Player Dies.
COLUMBUS, Oct. 31.—Raymond Kelsey, aged 18, left halfback of the Delaware high school football team, whose back was broken in a game at Newark last Saturday, died during the night.

Following the parade the throngs were directed to West End park where city gridiron honors will be conferred by the Veterans of Foreign Wars and the Grands. The game is scheduled to begin promptly at 3:30 o'clock. Five bands will furnish music for the game.

ORGANIZE TO CURB RIOTING

Sheriffs of each of the 55 counties in the state of West Virginia are to be asked to head committees of 50 citizens in each municipality, whose duty it will be to take charge of the situation should there be any riots or outbreaks caused by labor troubles. The committee will be made up of "public spirited citizens, men who can be trusted and whose loyalty to the government and its institutions is beyond question." Sheriff A. S. Cooper will be appointed to head the committee in Hancock county.

The governor has fears for uprisings in various sections of the state during the nation-wide strike of coal miners and he has dispatched letters to the various sheriffs enlisting their co-operation in this work.

The first duty of these committees, Governor Cornwell said, "will be to alleviate the inevitable suffering that will follow in the wake of a prolonged strike and any general industrial disturbance."

Their second duty he defined as being "to aid the public officials, city, county and state in preserving order and in protecting lives and property."

The governor warned the people of the state that their greatest danger will lie "in their failure to realize the dangers to which the state and organized society may be suddenly subjected."

"I am not an alarmist," he declared, "I simply have information as to the

STREET CARS OPERATE ON WESTBOUND TRACK

For the first time in five weeks, Chester street cars on Friday were operating on the west-bound tracks above the First street cross-over. The cars are also making the loop through the Diamond at East Liverpool.

The west-bound tracks between First street and the end of the line in the upper end of Chester has been closed to all traffic for five weeks because of the rebuilding of the line on Carolina avenue between Third and Fifth streets. This improvement was completed Thursday evening, permitting the cars to operate over the new piece of improved tracking.

The improvements to the westbound track between the Third and Fifth street on Carolina avenue will be started probably on Saturday. It was thought advisable to leave both tracks open for traffic Friday because of the extra cars which must be pressed into service on account of the Homecoming celebration in East Liverpool, Friday afternoon and evening.

Workmen on Thursday evening completed the construction of the new tracks and Market street between Fourth and Fifth streets, making it possible for the cars to operate over this stretch.

All business houses of the city closed at 12 o'clock. The mill closed Friday morning for the entire day. Some departments of the two local factories worked but half a day, although the entire works were closed at noon.

The Chester schools closed for the day with the morning session in order that the children might be permitted to take part in the East Liverpool festivities.

CHESTER CASE TO BE PROBED

Many important cases will be up for the consideration of the Hancock county grand jury when it meets for the November term of court at New Cumberland next Monday.

Allen Minter and Albert Snyder, who escaped from the Hancock county jail on October 7, will probably be indicted, although neither of them will probably be tried at this term of court. Minter, who was captured at Steubenville about a week ago in connection with "blagiarizing" two homes in that city, has been turned over to the federal authorities at Columbus, who will prosecute him for his alleged failure to register in connection with the selective service act. Snyder, who is still at large, is charged with obtaining money under false pretenses. Two colored women who escaped with Minter, are charged with larceny.

Willard W. E. Llewellyn of Chester, F. E. Edwards of Parkersburg and Harry Elwell of East Liverpool, who are prisoners in the county jail, are facing charges of grand larceny in connection with the alleged theft of ware from the Taylor, Smith & Taylor pottery here.

A number of other cases involving

SEEK FUND FOR WORK IN CHINA

More than three-quarters of a million dollars are asked for educational work in the three Episcopal districts of China. Of this amount, according to the survey sheet sent to National-Wide Campaign headquarters, $553,150 is needed for Episcopal schools and $236,000 for expansion of college work. The district of Shanghai asks for $92,300 for 30 more schools and Hankow seeks $224,400 for 33 new educational institutions.

"No country in the world has ever had more profound faith in education than China," says the Rt. Rev. Frederick R. Graves, missionary Bishop of Shanghai, where St. John's University attracts scholars from every corner of China. "Here education has always been the royal road to eminence, and the poorest scholar can hold his head higher in popular estimation than the multi-millionaire who lacks an education."

Modern China is asking for more schools—government schools, Buddhist schools, Christian schools, any kind of schools, where occidental branches and methods of teaching are established.

"Both my husband and I have been taking Dreco, and it has helped us very much," declared Mrs. Della Findlay of 516 Newcome Ave., Dayton, O. Mr. Findlay is a well-known employee of the Maxwell Auto Co.

"I was terribly broken and run down; so nervous I could not sleep and as weak as a baby. My stomach stayed filled with gas; I had terrible pains in my back and right side, and my liver was sore. I was so nervous that every little thing irritated me beyond reason, and I'd lie awake all night and worry and fret and jump at every little noise. I really dreaded for night to come. My stomach hurt all the time."

"A friend advised me to try Dreco, as she had taken it and got fine relief from the same troubles as mine. I am now thankful for the good Dreco has done me. My nerves are quiet, so that I sleep well; no more pain or gas in my stomach; bowels act regular and my liver is cleared off."

"My husband had catarrh something awful. Every morning he would be stopped up, and he would cough mucus for hours. He would get upset and his stomach got in bad condition; he felt tired and drowsy all the time. Dreco has done him worlds of good, for he rises in the morning now with his head clear as a bell; his stomach is strong again, and he is full of energy once more. Both of us are great boosters for Dreco."

All good druggists now sell Dreco, and it is highly recommended in this city by

Druggists Call Begy's Mustarine Triple Extract of Heat

But It's Non-Blistering Heat and It Won't Hurt the Tenderest Skin.

Grandmother's old-fashioned mustard plaster did the work all right but it blistered the skin and was a mighty messy remedy. Begy's Mustarine is the original mustard prescription that has made grandmother mustard plaster but a relic of bygone days.

It's ten times better, cleaner and cannot blister. It is made of true, honest yellow mustard combined with other well known destroyers of pain and a box does the work of fifty mustard plasters.

Why suffer for days using plasters or continuously rubbing on liniment when one application of Begy's Mustarine will take out corns in chest or any part of the body and will limber up stiff neck or rusty joints. It banishes headache, toothache, headache in ten minutes many times in five.

If you want to get rid of sore throat, neuralgia, neuritis, tonsillitis, pleurisy or rheumatic agony and swollen joints—rub on Begy's Mustarine right away—it's the quickest pain killer in the world and the cheapest. Get Begy's Mustarine in the yellow box at any drug store. One box is equal to 50 boxes of blistering mustard plasters, and money back if it isn't the quickest painkiller you ever used. 30 and 60 cents. Always in the yellow box.

Asserts New Discovery Brings Blessed Relief To Rose and Hay Fever Sufferers

Can Make It Yourself At Home At Trifling Expense

In spite of all the doubters and scoffers, a man in Kentucky, who changed his annoying and distressing hay fever into less than a mild cold, claims most emphatically that if taken in time hay fever can be conquered or at least made so harmless that it is not even bothersome.

He gave his discovery to scores of other sufferers with the most remarkable results and has recently been prevailed upon to dispense it through pharmacists to all hay fever sufferers who still have faith that nature has provided an effective remedy for this common yet miserable disease.

And best of all this remedy costs almost nothing. Get a one ounce bottle of Mentholized Arcline at any drug store, pour the contents into a pint bottle and fill the pint bottle with water that has been boiled.

Then gargle as directed and twice daily sniff or spray each nostril thoroughly.

That's all there is to it; so simple that a lot of people will say that it can't do the work; but oftentimes simple natural remedies are the best as you will find after using.

If you will make up a pint and use it for a week or ten days you need not be surprised if your unwelcome yearly visitor fails to appear.

CLAIM NEW CUMBERLAND POTTERY IS NON-UNION

Alleging that the Chelsea China company of New Cumberland is a non-union plant and that its operators are opposed to the employing of men identified with the union, the National Brotherhood of Operative Potters, with headquarters at East Liverpool, has issued a notice to organized potters to stay away from the plant.

According to information which has been received by the officers of the National Brotherhood of Operative Potters, the heads of the plant have refused to treat with the Brotherhood or to give employment on its factory to any one holding any kind of a trade union affiliation. Those who are accepted for employment are required to sign a statement that they will not join a labor organization while in the employ of the company. It is claimed.

Should any employee desire to join a union, he is required to serve a two weeks' notice. This information was furnished to the heads of the Brotherhood by a former employee of the New Cumberland works, it is alleged.

"Pape's Diapepsin" puts Sour, Gassy, Acid Stomachs in order at once!

Wonder what upset your stomach—what portion of the food did the damage—do you? Well, don't bother. If your stomach is in a revolt, if sick, gassy and upset, and what you just ate has fermented and turned sour; head dizzy and aches; belch gases and acids and eructate undigested food—just eat a tablet or two of Pape's Diapepsin to help neutralize acidity and in five minutes you wonder what became of the indigestion and distress.

If your stomach doesn't take care of your liberal limit without rebellion; if your food is a damage instead of a help, remember the quickest, surest, most harmless antacid is Pape's Diapepsin, which costs so little at drug stores.

WITH THE WOMEN OF TODAY

Clara Beranger

If there is any industry in the world today in which women have demonstrated their ability to compete successfully with man it is the motion picture industry. Although this business has yet to celebrate its twenty-fifth anniversary, there are only four great industrial branches of commercial life in the world today that exceed it in any volume of business. Women have become a factor in screen entertainments, but only recently have they ever shown a faculty for writing photoplays. Among the most prominent is Clara Beranger, who is three years' time, from a novice, has reached a position where her earnings are $75,000 a year, and it all came about through curiosity.

Herself a graduate of Goucher College, Baltimore, she specialized in domestic science. Her marriage turned her from a teacher's career to that of a housewife and her husband's helpmeet. Finding time from her duties of taking care of her house and raising her little girl, and being fond of the movies, she was curious to know whether or not she could write a story that would meet with the approval of picture producers. She tried it and sent the story to well known company and to her surprise it was accepted, and soon came a check for $250.

With feverish haste she wrote another and dispatched it by special delivery and with equal rapidity it was returned to her with the usual note of rejection. This did not discourage her. She wrote two more and these, too, were turned down. The fifth one brought her a check. From this time on she kept at the game, but meanwhile hired a servant to take care of the house while she spent her time in writing. She has contributed over 100 original screen plays without counting the numerous adaptations of popular novels and plays that have been made into productions. Such famous stars as Marguerite Clark, Mary Miles Minter, Montagu Love, Evelyn Greeley, Pauline Frederick, Madge Kennedy, and many others of equal importance have scored big hits with Mrs. Beranger's motion picture plays.

Women Barred From Government Positions

Women were barred from sixty per cent of the government positions for which examinations were held in the first six months of 1915, according to an official report made public recently by the woman's bureau of the United States department of labor.

This statement covers examinations for 260 different types of positions, exclusive of manufacturing and mechanical positions in the ordnance factories, quartermaster depots, and navy yards, and exclusive of unskilled labor.

According to the report, women were not allowed to compete for sixteen per cent of the clerical positions.

The complete report which will be made within a few weeks, it is stated by Miss Mary Anderson of Chicago, director of Women's bureau, covers investigations which have been in progress for a month, and are being extended in response to a request from the national federation of federal employees recently in convention at San Francisco.

The second and largest section of the report will consist of an analysis of the salary scale of women in the government service, the requirements of the positions they fill, and the specific inequalities in the pay they receive.

Better and Better! This Store Fairly Hums With New Activity

We Close Today At Noon

In order that we may have the opportunity and the privilege of doing honor to our returned heroes—that we may join hands with the entire city and welcome home officially the sons of East Liverpool who left our midst to preserve the honor and integrity of the American flag, on land and sea and prove to the whole world that democracy and honor must reign wherever the Stars and Stripes shall float. They went over—they finished the job, and today we pay homage to the best in the world.

Beautiful Georgette Waists In Most Wonderful Variety

It would be hard to describe the loveliness and beauty of all the new Georgette Waists and the long list of various styles. Dark waists of Georgette are greatly in request to wear with dark tailored suits, and these we are showing in all the wanted colors and shades. The dainty light evening shades are well represented in almost any color you might fancy. A great many of the new waists are trimmed with real hand-made filet lace. Others have a touch of embroidery work, and of course fancy buttons are very much in evidence on most of the waists.

Elinor Fair Says:

"My ideal man is a clean-cut American. He must be well educated. I demand of him that he be faultlessly groomed at all times. He must be dark, tall, and willing to talk to anyone. I could not stand a man who was what we on the screen call 'Upstage.' It does not make a difference to me whether he has a fortune or not. I think that I would rather he did not have a lot of money. Of course I would expect him to provide a comfortable home, and to be considerate husband and father, but to me money is not essential to happiness. Above all, my husband must be clean-mouthed. I hate a man who swears."

NEWS NOTES FROM MOVIELAND

Queen Elizabeth of Belgium and Mildred Harris Chaplin. It is not often that two queens are photographed in the United States, but here they are, a movie queen and a real one. Mrs. Charlie Chaplin is reported as being the only moving picture star in the United States who had the distinction of being officially presented to the Queen of Belgium. Mrs. Chaplin is shown here with the queen, to whom she has just presented a huge bouquet of orchids. The Chaplins offered their airplanes to the Belgian royal couple for their short stay in Los Angeles and this picture was taken on the Chaplin aviation field. Mildred Harris Chaplin's press agent claims that although every other star tried for the honor of meeting the queen, that little Mrs. Chaplin was the only one to succeed.

Miss Florence Moss, secretary of the Hancock county chapter of the American Red Cross, has received word from Private Albert Newbon, a Newell lad, who is a member of the United States air service, that he is now stationed at March field, River- side, Cal., having only recently been sent there from Fort D. A. Russell, Wyo.

Newbon's father, an invalid, at the present time is being cared for at the expense of the home service section of the Hancock county chapter of the Red Cross. He is completely paralyzed and on Sept. 24 was removed from a home on Grant street, where he had been boarding, to the East Liverpool City hospital, where he has since been confined.

The Red Cross recently made arrangements with Mr. Newbon's daughter to take care of her father and the aged man will be removed from the hospital to the daughter's home at once.

This is one of the many cases which is being handled by the home service section of the Red Cross. One-half of the money collected in the membership roll call campaign which starts next Monday will be used locally.

MAY ARRANGE SERIES OF COMMUNITY MEETINGS

At the suggestion of Clarke lodge No. 447, Odd Fellows of Newell, a series of community meetings between the six I. O. O. F. lodges in the immediate vicinity may be arranged for this coming winter.

According to the plans, which have been unanimously approved by the local lodge, it is sought to have each of the six I. O. O. F. lodges in the East Liverpool district—East Liver- pool, East End, Smith's Ferry, New- ell, Chester and Wellsville—appoint two members to serve on a commit- tee, whose duty it will be to arrange a schedule of dates upon which each lodge shall be visited.

It has been suggested that each of the six lodges act as host to the other five lodges once during the winter months. It is planned to have these visits on the regular meeting nights of the lodge when the degree team of one of the visiting lodges will put on the initiation work. Following the regular meeting there will be a social hour in which a program will be rendered and a "feed" served at the conclusion. Each lodge would be the guest for one meeting only. These visitations are to be held monthly.

The Newell lodge has named W. C. Miller and George Neal as its mem- bers of the committee. A communica- tion has been addressed to all of the other five lodges who will be in- cluded in the group asking them to take immediate action on the propo- sition by naming their representatives on the committee.

NEWELL CHEERS HEROES OF WAR

Friday is a holiday in Newell. With all stores and business houses closed for the afternoon, the indus- tries shut down and the schools prac- tically dismissed, Newell is joining with East Liverpool in tendering the returned service men a reception Fri- day afternoon and evening.

The management of both the local potteries suspended operations for the day at noon. In some instances cer- tain departments did not start opera- tions at all.

While the schools could not dismiss for the afternoon because of a state law, the school children were told Thursday that they would not be marked absent if they failed to re- port at school during the afternoon.

MINE TIE-UP TO HIT PLANTS

Newell Industries will be forced to suspend operations within a very short time if the strike of soft coal miners, which becomes effective Fri- day midnight, should continue for any great length of time. This was the statement made Thursday by the heads of the various plants, located here.

The Kenilworth Brick company probably would be the first to be af- fected by the strike as this plant op- erates solely with coal. The present supply would not last for more than a couple of days, it was announced Thursday, as both the boilers and kilns are fired with coal.

The two local potteries, the Homer

Laughlin China company and the Ed- win M. Knowles company, could not operate for more than a week with their present supply of fuel. The boil- ers of both plants are fired with coal the year around, while coal is used in some of the kilns during the winter months when gas is not available.

In case the strike becomes effective Friday night, as it probably will, no more kilns will be fired with coal and the present supply will be used for the plant. By this means the facto- ries would be able to operate longer than usual. It was stated Thursday afternoon that a shortage in the sup- ply of gas is already noticeable.

The government's action in holding up all coal shipments excepting to industries which are absolutely nec- essary, is taken to mean in Newell that no more coal can be expected for the plants here until the strike is settled.

Baker's Hot Blast Heating Stoves

Produce More Heat With Less Coal

They Burn the Smoke and Soot

There are many reasons why Bakers Hot Blast heat better than ordinary makes.

First—The air blast causes the coal to burn from the edges instead of up through the center, producing an even radiation at all times.

Second—The superheated air that passes through the slots over the top of the coal perfectly mixes with the escaping smoke and soot. This causes these usually wasted products of soft coal to burn and give a third more heat.

The perforated outer casing creates a perfect circulation of air through- out the home, heating floors and all at a uniformly even temperature.

They Keep a Fire 48 Hours

All joints are machined and groov- ed to fit accurately, and even the doors are air tight when closed.

This is the cleanest Heating Stove to be obtained. The ornamental outer casing does not get hot enough to burn off the blacking, thus one blacking a year is sufficient, even the nickel re- maining bright and shining.

We earnestly suggest you permit us to demonstrate these and the many other valuable features which space does not permit us to describe.

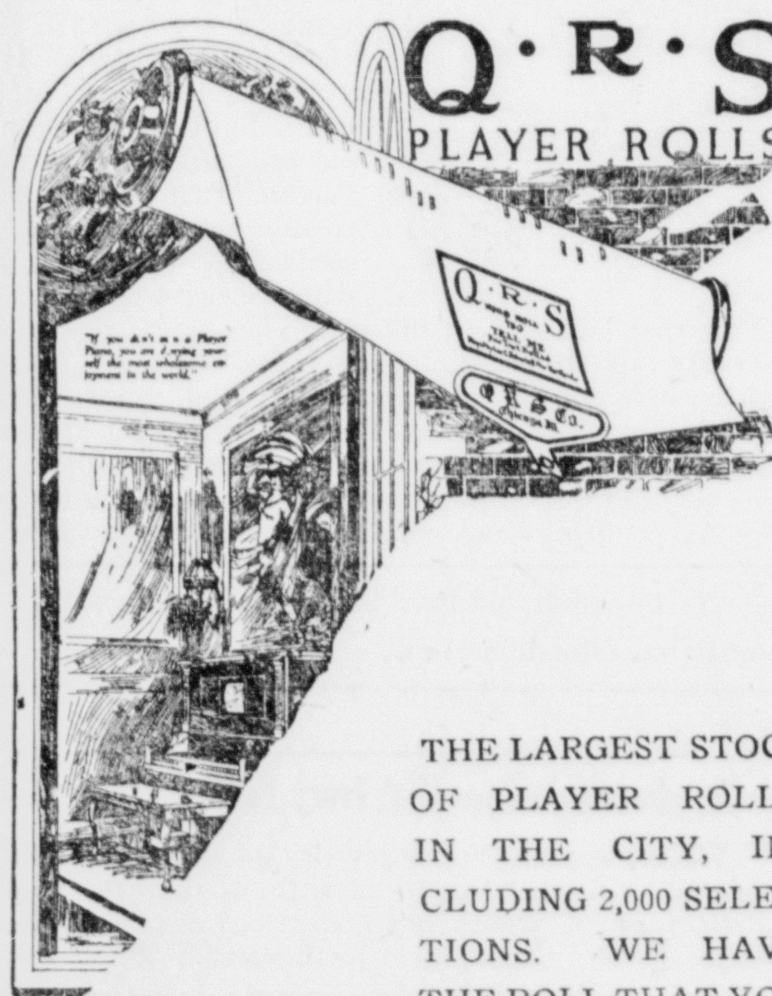

You will find Baker's the most prac- tical and economical stove in exist- ence.

AGRAM IS THE CHEAPEST CITY IN UNIVERSE

Get Excellent Meal In Jugo-Slavia Capital for 60 Cents.

By LUCIEN JONES

AGRAM, (Zagreb, capital of Jugo-Slavia, by mail.)—There is always the other side of the picture. The world is tired of hearing of the enormous cost of food. That a lump of sugar costs $8 in Petrograd, or boots guineas a pair no longer thrills the imagination.

Agram for a foreigner—with the present rate of exchange of a penny equalling roughly a crown—must be the cheapest city in the world. Here is the bill for a dinner in the best restaurant in the town, a restaurant which would compete favorably with any good class establishment in London:

Half roast chicken (ten crowns) .....	20 cents
French beans in butter (three crowns) .....	6 cents
New Bread with 1-8 pound butter (five crowns) .....	10 cents
Cream cakes, three (one and one-half crowns each) .....	9 cents
Glass white wine with soda water (four crowns) .....	8 cents
	63 cents

Beefsteak, which costs seventy crowns in Vienna, can be bought for $10 a kilogram (2 pounds 2 1/4 ounces). Butter is $37.50 a kilo. A room in a first-class hotel is forty-six cents a night, and a ride on a tramcar anywhere in the town costs a third of a penny. Silk knitted ties, which cost six shillings in London, are sold for three and sixpence.

Part of these low prices are due to dumping of French, Italian, American, and cheap German goods. An untrader in Jugo-Slavia, but they appear unable or unwilling to take advantage of it, and their ignorance of geography, despite war time lessons, is appalling. For instance, a trader in the town of Brod, some miles east of Agram, wrote to a British firm in Jugo-Slavia. The following reply came back in English: "In reference to your esteemed order, our agent is at present in Cologne, and we suggest you should drop in on him one day."

Apart from the enormous difficulty in getting passports and the troubles of train journeys, it would take the trader at least eight days and eight nights to go to Cologne and back from Brod.

Jugo-Slavia promises to become with Serbia an important and wealthy kingdom. Despite the efforts of monarchic agents in Agram to stir up trouble in Croatia, Pan-Slavism is running high and politicians are only waiting for the recovery of Russia to form a Slav ring stretching from the Black Sea to the Adriatic.

BETTER MUNICIPAL CAMPAIGN

COLMBUS, Oct. 30.—The capital city is in the last week of the bitterest municipal campaign in its history with four candidates for mayor making appeals to the voters. Mayor Karb, who has been in office for twelve years, seeks reelection on the ground that the city has and is progressing under his leadership. He has the support of a good portion of the business interests. J. J. Thomas, Republican candidate, is appealing to the church element and to the women, who vote in Columbus. He has been endorsed by many civic organizations of the city which find fault with the moral conditions of the city. Thomas also has a strong following among business men. The other candidates are James J. Dunn, former county surveyor and Fred Zimpher, a musician.

The female hornet only is armed with a sting.

Unknowningly Aided Auto Bandit
MANSFIELD, Oct. 30.—When an automobile was driven in the ditch near his home, George Buchan went out to aid the driver in getting it back on the road, "because the car was just like my son's." After it had disappeared, Buchan found out that the car did belong to his son and that he was unknowingly aiding the auto bandit to escape.

The Booze Gang for Booodle!

CARDINAL DESIRE MERCIER

A Hero of the Spirit, a Prince of Souls, a Priest of Humanity.—Rabbo David Phillipson.

On Sunday, October 26, Cincinnati had the honor and pleasure of extending greeting to Cardinal Mercier, the great warrior prelate of Belgium, who is visiting the United States to express the gratitude of his people for American help during the war.

In the midst of the life and death struggle which his people were making during the war, Cardinal Mercier, in season and out of season, waged relentless warfare against the great enemy at home, Alcoholism.

Here is a paragraph from one of his numerous addresses on the subject:

"You who hold the Christian faith look around you at those who suffer from the effects of alcoholism. Can we be insensible to the spectacle of this misery and pass by on the other side? No, indeed!

"I am discharging my duty as a Catholic, as a priest, as a Bishop, in coming to co-operate with you in the struggle against alcoholism."

On Sunday last, in his eloquent address to the packed audience in Music Hall, he said:

"When the majority of you people thing one way to act a sane man.

"When I sat down to dinners given me, and there were glasses of water for refreshment, I said to myself that these people realize, each for each, his own responsibility for the keeping of a law, and I saw many who seemed to prefer the order of things, but the greater point to be remembered is that they all conformed to the will of the majority and acted as one man just as you did when you entered the war.

"You must have time to form your opinions, but once formed you are not to be stopped."

Welcome Soldier and Sailors Votes

The Wets are insisting, for political purposes, that it was unfair to convict and execute the LIQUOR TRAFFIC in the ABSENCE OF THE SOLDIER VOTE in Ohio and the Nation last year. May we suggest that practically all the state and national legislators who helped in this execution were elected while you were still here and helped to start the drive OVER THE TOP; we did not dare go back.

Two Wet amendments to the State Constitution are up for Vote Nov. 4.—The passage of either one will put beer in a class with pop and lemonade and let it be sold without license, at any time, any place to any person.

While you boys were away, Ohio and the nation went dry, not because of your absence but in spite of it. You helped to start the ball rolling and the wets couldn't stop it. The long, steadily-gaining fight for decency was won. Now the men who make billions out of booze are counting upon you to put them back in power.

Not only that—they are asking permission to put "2-75" beer, an intoxicating, habit-forming drink, so decided by Uncle Sam's law makers, into every candy store or soda fountain—without tax, without restraint—there to be sold to any child or woman, at any hour of any day.

That is exactly what the wet amendments mean!

Why does the pro-German brewer clamor now for the "square deal" for soldiers? Why is the distiller so keen for "personal liberty?"

Bankroll—nothing else.

Boys, don't "kid" yourselves. The liquor traffic is fighting, not for you, but for more dirty dollars. Germany lost because she couldn't understand a nation inspired with unselfishness. Booze has lost because it wouldn't play fair—it couldn't understand how red-blooded Americans hate foul play.

The "square deal" yammer is quick to cloud the issue, to keep you from thinking straight. Now that you're back, and can vote—think! We believe you will.

It's the same old issue—booze against decency—only worse. Booze never dared try putting beer up to every child until it saw a chance to make a cat's-paw out of you.

The chivalry you showed in France didn't come off with your uniform. Don't let booze trick you out of it.

Remarkable Movies of the Living Blood

This Picture That Looks Like That of a Dark River Flowing Between High Banks Shows Human Blood in an Artery.

Elements of Human Blood Greatly Magnified.

Showing Divided Streams of Blood in the Arteries of a Frog.

How the Modern Medical Student Sees the Minute Drama of Body Life

By F. A. COLLINS

Clearly Enacted on the Screen, Including the Beating of the Heart and the Building of Tissue.

NOTHING is hidden from the eye of the camera. It is not only possible to look through the human body, but moving pictures may even be taken of the process of life itself. Surprisingly realistic pictures are now made of the actual flow of the blood in the arteries and veins. The blood pumped directly from the heart may be watched as it flows back and forth, while the most delicate tissues of the body are built up before one's eyes.

It is difficult to realize that until comparatively recent times physicians were wholly ignorant of the movement of the blood. The best authorities once believed that the veins and arteries of the human body were filled with nothing more substantial than air. It was thought by some that the blood flowed from the heart to the liver, but it was not imagined that it penetrated further into the human body. As far back as the days of Aristotle there had been some highly ingenious guesswork, but there was no definite knowledge.

Despite the advances in medicine it was not until the time of William Harvey that the new theory of the circulation of the blood was advanced which was to revolutionize the science. Harvey was not only the greatest physician of his time, but held a high social position, all of which helped him to convince the world of his new discovery. He was born in 1578 and died in 1657. His famous theory of the circulation of the blood was not announced until 1628. Harvey was a friend of the king and numbered among his patients some of the most famous men in England, including Sir Francis Bacon. When Harvey announced his revolutionary theory of the circulation of the blood it was met with a storm of criticism.

Photography and the X-Ray

Modern surgery has made it possible to discover many things about the circulation of the blood. But it was not until the perfection of photography in our own day that scientists were able to watch the actual operation of the flow of the blood in the living body. The discovery of the X-ray made it possible for the physician to look directly through the living tissues of the body and watch the flow of the life fluid. Many things which had been hidden from science could now be explained.

The use of the motion pictures camera in picturing the flow of the blood has opened a new era in the science of medicine. The X-ray machine at best enabled only one or two people at a time to watch the action of the blood. There was besides always a latent danger of burning in using such apparatus. The "movie" camera places this discovery at the disposal of all. It is possible, for instance, to display a motion picture of the circulation of the blood to medical classes or audiences of thousands and reproduce for them the details which heretofore could only be studied by small groups in the dissecting room. The motion picture camera in connection with a super microscope has proved invaluable. It makes it possible not only to look through the eye of the most powerful microscope, but to reproduce the actual movement of the blood. Everyone is, of course, familiar with the corpuscles of the blood and their action, but how many have ever seen them? They are so minute that they can only be seen with the aid of a very powerful microscope. The diameter of a human corpuscle is .0075 M M. Now a millimeter is about one-thirty-second of an inch long. In other words it would be necessary to put about 150 corpuscles on top of each other to make a pile one-thirty-second of an inch high.

Putting Blood Life on the Screen

When a movie is projected on the screen these minute particles appear as large as one's hand and dance about in a very lively fashion. They are seen to be shaped like disks with beveled edges. One instantly recognizes the difference between the blood corpuscles of the human body and those of other animals, and between warm and cold-blooded animals. It is hard to realize that these disks floating about on the screen, which appear to be a foot and more in length are so minute that scores of them could be piled up on the point of a pin.

The microscope plays some curious tricks on the eye. It is difficult to recognize many of these movies for what they are. A minute vein, for instance, when magnified and reproduced in the movies, appears like some broad fast, flowing river. Anyone seeing such a film for the first time might think that it reproduced an actual river flowing through sandy country. At a point where a minute vein divides into two smaller veins there is a perfect illusion of a broad stream being split in two by a sharp cape into two smaller but well defined streams which continue on their courses.

Heart Beats of a Frog Are Shown with This Distinctness of Image.

Blood of Living Bird as Reported by Micro-Photograph.

An enlarged moving picture of the blood flowing through an artery is especially surprising. The stream of blood is magnified until it has the appearance of a broad, deep river flowing between high banks. The illusion is so perfect that one would not be surprised to see large ships suddenly appear on its surface or buildings rise on its banks. In the moving pictures of the veins and arteries the stream seems to flow with the rapidity of a mill race. The flow is not steady, however, but changes every second. The pulsing movement one sees in these amazing movies is nothing less than the pulsation of the heart. Even the heart itself is photographed in the very act of contracting and expanding. The pictures reproduced herewith are actual photographs enlarged from moving picture films. The films were made in France by a combination of the X-ray and the microscope designed by Pathe.

The importance of such films in medicine, for instance, will of course, be recognized. The slow tedious work of examining the blood with the aid of a powerful microscope is done away with, as well as the use of the X-ray machine. A class of medical students, for instance, can enjoy this amazing object lesson. The educational opportunity of such pictures cannot be overestimated. The professor in exhibiting these films can present a graphic picture which will impress his classes far more than any words. What may appear a curious bank on the borders of an artery in the films may illustrate a dangerous hardening of the wall of the artery which indicates apoplexy. The flow of the dark stream will indicate to the practiced eye the exact condition of the heart. The dancing of the little disks will indicate to the medical mind the precise condition of the blood.

Body's Secrets Revealed

Even to the layman in such matters the contrast in the form or movement of the corpuscles is quickly significant. The effect of alcohol on the blood is very clearly seen. The dance of the tiny particles again is changed if the subject is angry when the pictures are taken. If the little disks appear in a certain form it is at once evident beyond all doubt that the blood is infected with tuberculosis.

It is difficult to realize that all these objects which dance about the screen are in reality more minute than the point of the sharpest needle.

A Handmaid to Science

Thus the camera becomes in a new sense once more the handmaid of science.

You may fancy the vividness of the revelation by recalling your own experience in a motion picture theatre. You have seen wonders on the screen, but simply as one who is being entertained. With a student, busy about the matter of his life work, the experience is more vital and thrilling.

Imagine the interior life of the body, the great secrets usually held for a few eyes, being flashed before an audience of young doctors-to-be. The professor stands by with his pointer. "Notice," he says, "the course of the artery and the rhythmic flow of the blood as it is pumped by the action of the heart. Notice the action of this pressure of liquid life on the arterial walls, whose elasticity is so essential to the proper functioning of the bodily processes."

In such a manner instruction as to the minutest characteristics are impressed upon the mind not as they would be impressed by mere description as between men alternating in attention at a microscope, but with the map-like plainness that is helped by the action of a pointer that can touch each particle of image while it actually moves in immense magnification before two or three hundred pair of eyes.

Thus, indeed, the motion picture in combination with the microscopic lenses becomes a time saver in medical education, the importance of which it would be difficult to over-estimate.

The Dingo Dog

THE dingo dog is the name given to the wild canine of Australia. He is to that country what the wolf is to eastern Europe or the coyote to the United States. Hunting with a pack or alone, he is a constant menace to Australia's chief industry, the breeding of sheep.

Many are the schemes devised for the dingo's extermination, but his capture or death is a comparatively rare occurrence when set against his constant depredations. There are dog trappers who spend their whole time trying to catch dingoes, men who have studied every aspect of their work and who spare no pains and avoid no hardship in a continual warfare with the wild and cunning of this sheep slayer.

Although the dingo is met with from time to time in almost every part of the Australian bush, his principal habitat is the rough range country in the centre and north of New South Wales and the deep dark scrubs of Queensland.

The dog trapper's life is of the loneliest kind. For weeks, perhaps months, he camps in the desolate ranges, setting his traps and watching with ready rifle in the moonlit night for a chance shot at the enemy. In the bush there is a price on the head of every dingo. In some parts a dingo is worth $50 or even $75 to the man who delivers his scalp to the pastoral board or to the squatter.

This is made up by sums contributed by the sheep breeders and allowed by the district councils, so generally recognized an enemy is the wild dog. With such handsome emoluments to encourage him, the professional dog trapper is not easily daunted, and his patience and perseverance are remarkable. Sometimes he may get as many as three or four dogs in a week, but as a rule he is doing very well if he gets three in three months.

For the most part the dingo confines his murderous attacks to sheep and weakling calves, but in the far-out Queensland districts, where large packs travel together, hunger has been known to make them bold enough to attack men in their lonely camps after the manner of wolves.

The dingo never barks, but his weird howl is a familiar sound in the bush at night, and is bloodcurdling in the extreme, being especially trying on the nerves of the newcomers in the camps. Owing to the dingo's cunning and swiftness in changing quarters, he holds his own and is likely to do so for many a day to come, even though the very generous price set upon his head should be doubled or trebled.

Where the World Always Has Been "Bone Dry"

THE nation-wide "dryness" brings to mind localities where almost perpetual drought is the rule. Among these is included a part of the United States which has been "bone-dry" since time immemorial and where depression is at its lowest.

Death Valley, 276 feet below sea level, is an alkaline desert region in California, on the Arizona border. It is 70 miles long, 10 to 20 miles wide and is situated between high foothills. Only 75 miles away Mt. Whitney raises its 14,500 feet into the air and with other near-by elevations is a barrier to any moisture reaching this parched region.

In summer the temperature reaches 130 degrees in the shade, where there is shade enough to cover the thermometer, and even the nights are too hot to sleep. Terrific whirlwinds of heated sands sweep up and down the valley and render it a barren waste, except for a few stunted cacti and greasewood. In autumn tourists may venture into its confines but they must carry "drink" for both man and beast, as the lone stream that enters this dreary region is bitter alkaline and soon disappears in the sand, while springs are miles and miles apart. Looking for a drink here would stand about as much chance of fulfillment as ordering a Martini at a W. C. T. U. meeting. However, a few slinking coyotes, rattlesnakes, horned toads, buzzards and half-starved jackrabbits manage to exist in some mysterious manner.

An almost bottomless salt marsh occupies the centre of the valley practically from end to end. About midway it gets very shallow and narrows down to about two miles in width. At this point a road crossing has been constructed. Many are the men and beasts that have lost their lives endeavoring to cross this barren, bone-dry waste which gets its name from the fact that in the California gold rush of 1849 so many prospectors were lost in its sandy maw.

The great Sahara desert covers the major part of northern Africa, consisting of 3,500,000 square miles—an arid region as large as the whole of Europe. From 100 feet below sea level it rises in one instance to 8000 feet above, and some of its elevations are covered with snow for three months of the year. Most of it, however, is a dry, sandy waste, dotted here and there with an oasis where "drink" may be secured. The winds are all very hot and dry, while rain is almost unknown.

The ostrich, camel, jackal, horned viper and numerous lizards are the principal animals of the region. Several varieties of hardy birds are also found, while in such a bone-dry territory it may be expected that the human population is at a low ebb. Arabs, Moors, Jews and Negroes jostle each other on the caravan routes and the fierce-looking Arabs who bring their produce to the Egyptian markets are probably the robbers and cutthroats in their desert home.

It is impossible for travelers to get off the road, as the caravan routes are bordered with the bones of countless camels which have fallen by the wayside during the thousands of years these trails have been traveled. However, it is possible that the clamors of these dry people will some day cause the introduction of irrigation systems to make "wet" territory of this vast scene of desolation, as it is very productive where moisture is obtainable.

The desert of Gobi in central Asia, where bone-dryness has been the fashion for thousands of years, is also a difficult place to obtain a drink. Its largest streams either vanish in the sand or empty into salty lakes. Caravan routes from China to Russia are still important trade channels, for the Russians insist that a sea voyage destroys the flavor of tea. This great arid waste is 1800 miles wide and 400 miles deep and the almost rainless years since antiquity have parched its sands to the dryness that drifts in gyrating sand waves and snuffs out vegetation with its hot breath.

You will know Arabia is a dry country upon looking at the map and seeing that almost all its interior is labeled "Arabian Desert." Here the temperature goes up to 135 and most of the people wear scarf-like draperies on their hats as additional protection from the boiling hot sun. Many of the rivers never reach an ocean outlet but lose their moisture in the burning sand and dwindle down to nothingness.

The desolate dry regions of central Australia are bone-dry to the limit. One section of the coast does not boast of even a rivulet to empty into the ocean. The lowest parts are occupied by saline mud lakes, baked and cracked with excessive sun heat. Rainfall is practically nil and scrubby bushes are about all the plant life seen in these regions. Though not a native of Australia the camel has been introduced as a pack animal in these stretches of waste, for he can go without "drink" for a week.

WILCE'S ELEVEN CONTINUES TO PRACTICE HARD

COLUMBUS, Oct. 31.—Favored for the Big Ten title by reason of their slashing victory over Michigan, the first in 22 years of football play, there is no letdown in effort of Ohio State football athletes this week. Monday, always a light day following a hard game, was the only easy afternoon the Wilcemen had. Despite the clock work precision of the Buckeyes, Director Wilce will bend every effort to strengthen both offense and defense before the decisive contests with Purdue and Wisconsin and Illinois soon to come.

Before the Purdue game the Buckeyes have two weeks of preparation. The Boilermakers, newcomers to the Ohio State schedule, will invade Ohio field on Nov. 8. The attack and stone-wall defense which baffled the Wolverines so completely will be greatly improved before the Lafayette team appears. The coming week end will probably witness a battle between the varsity and freshmen.

Revised statistics of the Michigan game show that except in punting the Yostmen were almost sadly outclassed, in all departments of the game. Michigan's aerial attack was so important as to be almost ludicrous before the hermetically sealed defense of the Ohioans. Hurling passes with abandon in the last quarter the Wolverines failed to gain a single yard. Seventeen hurts went for naught, while four Ohio tosses netted 28 yards. Michigan lost 29 yards in efforts to carry the ball, its backfield men being thrown for losses seven times. Ohio State backs lost 15 yards in the three times they were thrown for a loss.

Seven times Michigan failed to gain at all, Vick being the victim four times, Cruse once and Weston three times. For Ohio Harley failed to gain once, Stinchcomb twice, and Taylor once. State made six first downs to two for the home eleven. Twice the Yostmen lost the ball on downs, and was penalized 50 yards to 15 yards for the Ohioans.

In carrying the leather Michigan backs averaged three yards in 25 successful attempts, while State backs averaged eight yards. Sparks gained 35 yards in ten tries, Weston 27 yards in seven attempts, Vick seven yards in four, Cruse five yards in three, and Froenke one yard in one try. Harley annexed 104 yards of territory in 12 ball-toting attempts. Stinchcomb 60 yards in seven tries, Willaman four yards in two times.

YANKEES TO KEEP MILLER HUGGINS ANOTHER SEASON

Miller Huggins snapped during a practice session.

The Yankee owners have shown that they believe Miller Huggins deserves another chance as Yankee pilot by signing him for the season of 1920. Some of the fans went after Huggins tooth and nail because of his failure to win the pennant this season.

and Bliss three yards in his one attempt.

Not depreciating for an instant the strength of Purdue, the next opponent for the Buckeyes, the fact remains that opinion here is that on the outcome of the Wisconsin-Ohio State contest at Madison on Nov. 15 will depend the resting place of the 1919 Western Conference title.

HIGH GRIDDERS GO TO LISBON

Working Hard for Victory Over County-seaters, Which Will Put Them In the Running for Title.

Coach Johnny Coleman's blue and white platoon, chasers will invade the heart of the county next Saturday afternoon. They expect to lock horns with the Lisbon high school gridgers who were awarded a 1-0 forfeit game by Referee Steele last Saturday afternoon when Coach Charles Van Tilburg of Wellsville took his team from the field near the end of the second half on account of alleged partiality to the county seaters.

"I don't expect to have a bit of trouble when high school plays Lisbon Saturday afternoon," was the declaration of Faculty Manager W. W. Robinson, after news of the Lisbon-

Wellsville combat reached here. "I will ask that a referee other than Mr. Steele be secured for the game," was the statement of Coach Coleman. "According to the rules of the Northern Ohio High School association, an official is barred from active participation in handling the game when he has any relative playing on one or the other of the two teams," he said.

Steele, it is claimed, has a boy playing with the Lisbon squad and for this reason, if the code holds good, he would be ineligible to referee. The high school gridgers are working hard every evening at West End park in preparation for the struggle and expect to beat the county seaters. The blue and white are out to win the championship of the county and since the Wellsville orange and black gave away last Saturday's game by forfeit, they believe they have an excellent chance.

SPORTING GOSSIP

Charlie White is undoubtedly the chief contender for the crown of Benny Leonard, the lightweight champion, and if success crowns negotiations set afoot by his managers, Tommy Walsh and Nate Lewis, White will meet Leonard for eight rounds on Thanksgiving day at Detroit.

White is regarded by his managers as entitled to the match because of his successful campaign of the last two months among the top notch lightweights. He started with Harry Pierce of Philadelphia, whom he defeated in a six round affair; next came Stanley Oakum of Denver, where White was awarded the referee's decision; third in order was Johnny Noye of Denver, whom he easily distanced in a 12-round bout; fourth, Don Curley of Pittsburgh, knocked out in the seventh round of a scheduled 10-round engagement, and lastly Tony Zill, who received the worst lacing of his boxing career.

The New York Giants hit ten points better this season against the pitchers who made the Cincinnati Reds the monarchs of the baseball world than did the Chicago White Sox, who attempted to interrupt the momentum of the Moran machine. The McGrawites batted against Eiler, Ruetheer & Co. 628 times this year, and acquired 147 safeties for 59 runs and an average of .234. They faced three of Pittsburgh Pat's second string hurlers—Rube Bressler, Eddie Berner and Roy Mitchell—on 25 occasions and located them for nine thumps and four tallies, a resultant percentage of .250. In all the games the National League's second placers batted 664 times for 63 runs, 156 hits and an average of .235.

The theory that pitchers cannot hit was dealt a blow by Artie Neff and Rube Benton. McGraw's $45,000 investment got one blow in the games with the new champions; Benton tore off six. The former Brave hit .500 in the series with the Reds, the one time Red 333. The Rube won his own game at the Polo grounds on July 23 with a homer in the third inning off Harry Saltee, when two Giants were on the bases, the score of the game being 6 to 1. No McGraw regular compiled a 300 average against the Red pitchers this season, Ross Young approaching nearest to the mark with .292.

Eiler & Co. collected 52 strikeouts from the team that they had to eliminate in order to reach Pennantville, Young being a victim on eleven occasions, Chase on seven, Doyle on six, Burns on five, Zimmerman on four, Kauff on four, Gonzales on three, King twice, Fletcher twice, McCarty twice, Toney once, Barnes once, Smith once, Frisch once and Kelly once. Kauff had a field day at the bat at the expense of Fischer, Mitchell and Luque on June 10, when he singled once, doubled twice and tripped once in four times up.

Charles Brickley, conceded to be the greatest dropkicker in football history, says that Captain Jim Fitzpatrick, of the Boston college team, is the greatest kicker of all football time. Certainly Brickley ought to know whereof he speaks. Said he:

"Three years ago Fitzpatrick came to me from Meridan high school. At that time I predicted that he would develop into the greatest kicker football ever saw. Today he has fulfilled my prophecy. No man in the history of the game ever kicked as consistently as Fitzpatrick has done. In the game against Yale, he even surpassed his own wonderful record. He punted consistently for 60 yards and 70 yards, and his miraculous 47-yard dropkick will stand among the greatest feats of history."

ALL-STAR TEAM TO PLAY PATS

McLaughlin Organizes Eleven to Play at Youngstown Sunday--Picked from City's Talent.

Since he is unable to play himself on account of an injury to his jaw received in the East Palestine game recently, Jack McLaughlin, Veterans of Foreign Wars' fullback, has entered the ranks of organizers. He will take a picked team from this city to Youngstown Sunday to play the Patricians.

Contrary to general belief of fandom in this part of the state the Patricians of the present day are not the Patricians of former years. The Patricians club in Youngstown supports a 155-pound eleven which is practically the first independent team of the city. Ray Thomas' professional Patrician club disbanded early in the season after playing one game on account of lack of suitable playing grounds. It is believed. A short time ago the club organized an eleven entirely from the membership and has played a couple of games.

Two weeks ago the Patricians defeated the Salem semi-pros, 7 to 0. A forward pass did the trick.

McLaughlin is now gathering up his team and expects to get together an all-star aggregation from the vast amount of football talent in the city.

Here's some dope showing the spread of baseball: On the same day the Saints and Tigers were playing a game out in Los Angeles, the Pirates were playing the Almandares a game in Havana, and up in Montreal, the Giants were playing a Canadian independent team. Not even weather can stop the old game. It was near freezing up in Montreal and the players wore heavy sweaters. In Cuba and Los Angeles the fans were in their shirt sleeves.

Short Sports

Reports in Three-I League circles is that Hannibal and Quincy want in the league next year and it seems pretty certain that an eight-club circuit can be organized. The size of the cities, however raise a question as to how it can claim class B classification. Hannibal and Quincy both have been supporting independent teams well the past year. Henry Reidel is back of the movement to get a franchise for Hannibal.

Fans of Litchfield, Ill., celebrated their annual "Schalk Day" with a ball game on October 19 in which the Sox catcher took part as backstop for his home town team, with Joe Bennett and Johnny Tobin pitching. The opposing team was from the neighboring town of Mt. Olive and it had Dave Davenport for its pitcher. Dave was given a fine beating, the score being 9 to 2. Five thousand people witnessed the game and there was a big parade with two brass bands to help stir enthusiasm.

Reports from old Central league territory are that five cities have agreed to take franchises in the proposed reorganization. The cities of the franchise holders in each are announced as Grand Rapids, W. T. Morrissey; Lansing, James M. Walsh; Muskegon, A. G. Buffum; Jackson, John J. McCloskey; Fort Wayne, George Blemer. The circuit will be regarded as completed when the Richmond franchise is awarded. E. W. Dickerson is to be president of the League.

Report from Columbus is that Joe Dunn, who managed Bloomington to

BROTHERS PLAY ON HARVARD'S BACKFIELD; INJURY TO ONE HURTS CRIMSON'S CHANCES

The presence of two brothers on a college grid team is fairly unusual. And the presence of two of the same family in the backfield is quite rare. Harvard has Ralph Horween at fullback and his brother at one of the halves. Ralph shares with Eddie Casey the star roles on the team. He scored the touchdown and goal from touchdown that gave the Crimson its 7 to 0 victory over Brown. Art has been playing brilliantly at half.

a pennant in the Three-I League, will be made manager of the Columbus association team for next year. President Joe Tinkers says he is going to have a sure winner next year, that a large sum of money has been put at his disposal by the club owners to get new players. Another Association rumor is that John Gangel wants to buy Roger Bresnahan's stock in the Toledo Club and take over the management of the Mudhens.

Sport Briefs

Up in New England, where the weather is pretty raw at this time of the year, they are playing more baseball than in any other section of the country and some fancy prices are being paid players of note to appear in games. One Boston player reports he was offered $150 a game to play until the snow flies, but he had enough of baseball for one year and went home to take a job at about $30 a week.

Three Little Rock players, Benny Kerr, John Frierson and George Distel, played with an independent team in Okmulgee after the Southern League season closed and their work so enthused an oil man that he offered to take care of them all winter. When the players reported ready for the easy jobs, however, they found the oil man's enthusiasm had had cooled. He offered them real work at workmen's pay and they rebelled and returned to Little Rock.

Ball players in The American Association may say the season through that Jimmy Murray is the worst umpire of them all, but when they want a good man they pick him. In 1914 when the Milwaukee Brewers went to Denver to play the Western team there a series Murray was taken along as the A. A. umpire. This year the St. Paul Saints took him to Los Angeles as their umpire for the series with Vernon.

MINORS WILL GET TOGETHER SOON

CHICAGO, Oct. 31.—Pleasant relations between major and minor league may be resumed at the annual meeting of the National Association of Professional Baseball Leagues, to be held in Springfield, Mass., Nov. 11. Last year the little fellows met at Peoria and decided to withdraw from the national agreement. This is the biggest gathering of all the baseball folks below the majors.

The declaration to withdraw was followed by formal action at a joint meeting in New York last January at which the majors, said, but did not sign an agreement to that effect, that they would respect the contract rights of the minors. They did so, but:

In spite of the rules of the minors themselves that they would take back no players on optional agreements to return them to the majors in the fall, some minor clubs did not comply fully with this clause. The Whitesox yanked back some nine or 10 players stowed away for the summer in Minneapolis and the Western League.

Charles A. Cantillon, is boss of the Minneapolis club, while Tip O'Neill, Commy's right-hand man, has extensive interests in the Western league. Jim Dunn, president of the Cleveland outfit, is said to have indorsed notes for Clarence Rowland, when the former White Sox boss, purchased half the Milwaukee interests. And, so it goes. A major owner wishes to place a youngster in the minors and sell him for cash. In the autumn the favored minor magnate sells back the same player, also for cash, and the transaction appears legitimate. As a matter of fact, the player has been "farmed" in the same effect, if not the same manner, as in the days when "farming" was permitted.

The draft also was abolished prior to last season. This deprived the smaller leagues of a chance of garnering many thousands of dollars, which, in times past, often stood between profits and deficit.

The minors are in good condition right now. Some 16 leagues finished last season, and at least eight more are planned for 1920. At one time—1911—there were 46 leagues represented at the meeting of the National association in San Antonio.

The Pacific Coast league has indicated that it would favor returning to the order, restoration of the draft possibly being excepted.

Columbus—Governor Cox has been authorized by the war department to select six candidates for appointment to West Point. They will be selected from among members of the Ohio National Guard, following competitive examination which will be held the third Tuesday in February, 1920.

Months ago during the only time when prices were low we made purchases direct from the mills that amounted to hundreds of thousands of dollars.

What a lucky business move this was is being demonstrated every day as prices keep moving up all around us.

We've got wonderful fabrics here—at the old low prices, plenty of them for the men who buy now. You can't afford to wait. Present value-giving will be out of the question in a short while.

Never in our history have our eleven shops been able to offer the clothes buyer so much quality and value for the money. Prices in small tailor shops and in the ready-to-wear stores are soaring out of sight. Men who want to save, who want individual style and faultless fit, who want their clothes tailored-to-order are coming here by the hundreds. They appreciate the economy of our prices and the superiority of our tailoring service. Every garment designed, cut and tailored in our own shops and guaranteed to be right or money refunded. You can't afford to overlook the profit and the pleasure of having us tailor your new suit and overcoat to-order.

BRIGHT SPOT IN THE DAY'S NEWS

This is a sad, "Bright Spot," folks. F. A. Benedum, Columbus, entered the garden spirit like hundreds of his fellows, rented a lot and put it in potatoes. He took good care of the crop all summer long and while others did not have potatoes, Benedum told his friends he was satisfied that he would harvest a crop of 20 bushels from the lot. With confidence he went to the lot and proceeded to turn over the dirt. Nary a potato. Some one had been there first.

K. OF C. TO PLAY SANTA TO SOLDIERS IN SIBERIA

NEW YORK — Announcement was made here recently that several thousand pounds of fruit cake have been ordered by the Knights of Columbus for the American soldiers who are stationed in Siberia.

Wm. P. Larkin, overseas director of the Knights of Columbus, said that the K. of C. would again play Santa Claus and intended to take care of the soldiers in France, Russia, the Panama Canal zone and the Philippine Islands. More than 10,000 pounds of the cake will be sent to Vladivostok, Russia, to Garry McGarry, who is in charge of the K. of C. work there. It is the aim of the Knights to furnish each of the 10,000 or more troops with a pound of American fruit cake, along with other Christmas creature comforts.

Santa Claus will travel early by way of San Francisco, across the Pacific to Vladivostok to insure prompt delivery.

RECORD DEMAND FOR HUNTING LICENCES

GENEVA, N. Y. — It may be the high cost of living or it may be the desire of the hunter or the near hunt-or to get in touch with nature that this season has created an unusual demand for licenses to hunt and kill during the open season. Nimrods old and nimrods young have besieged the city clerk's office here for the card and button which entitles them to these privileges. The pheasants are said to be plenty. The hunter is after him.
